

A PEOPLE'S ARCHIVE OF
POLICE
VIOLENCE
IN CLEVELAND

Come Share Your Story and Materials as We Launch
the People's Archive of Police Violence in Cleveland

Noon-4 pm, Sat., April 8, 2017

MLK Branch Library, 1962 Stokes Blvd., Cleveland 44106

Refreshments will be served

If you have a story to share, we can record it that day and add it to the archive with your name or anonymously. If you have flyers, photographs (physical or digital), or other material to share with the archive, we can make copies to add that day.

The People's Archive of Police Violence in Cleveland (PAPVC- <http://www.archivingpoliceviolence.org/>) provides a way for Cleveland citizens to share their experiences with, or commentary on, police brutality. This archive allows people to document and preserve their stories and gives others access to them. In this way, police abuse is brought into the light of day as one step on the path to justice.

"...The only way to bear the overwhelming pain of oppression is by telling, in all its detail, in the presence of witnesses and in a context of resistance, how unbearable it is." –

Aurora Levins Morales

Sponsored by: Puncture the Silence-Stop Mass Incarceration, Professional Archivists from around the Country, Shemariah Arki, Black on Black Crime, Inc., Art Blakey, Books & Breakfast, Don Bryant, Cleveland Clergy Alliance, Committee to Free the RNC16, Rev. Leah Lewis, Dr. Ed McKinney, Genevieve Mitchell, Northeast Ohio American Friends Service Committee, Ohio City Theatre Project, #OrganizeCLE, Bernie Rolan

Visit the site and tell your story of police violence: <http://www.archivingpoliceviolence.org/>

<https://www.facebook.com/PeoplesArchiveOfPoliceViolenceInCleveland/>
puncturethesilenceCLE@gmail.com