

Benefit Concert for People's Tribunal on Police Brutality

6-8 pm

Monday, April 6

Coffee House at University Circle

11300 Juniper Rd.

Mississippi Charles Bevel

On Acoustic Guitar

"The 'Blues' does not mean black music. But its African roots cannot be denied... acquired from a people being forced to continuously live on the outer edges of the majority culture in America. Blacks have developed unique ways of expressing the constant pain and frustration that comes with that isolation..." -- Mississippi Charles Bevel

He recorded with A & M Records, "Meet Mississippi Charles Bevel"-- 1970s and with Bare Ridges Records, "Not of Seasons"--2000. His artistic career also has involved writing, acting and directing.

$10 suggested donation
(no one will be turned away)

Benefit Concert for People's Tribunal on Police Brutality

6-8 pm

Monday, April 6

Coffee House at University Circle

11300 Juniper Rd.

Mississippi Charles Bevel

On Acoustic Guitar

"The 'Blues' does not mean black music. But its African roots cannot be denied... acquired from a people being forced to continuously live on the outer edges of the majority culture in America. Blacks have developed unique ways of expressing the constant pain and frustration that comes with that isolation..." -- Mississippi Charles Bevel

He recorded with A & M Records, "Meet Mississippi Charles Bevel"-- 1970s and with Bare Ridges Records, "Not of Seasons"--2000. His artistic career also has involved writing, acting and directing.

$10 suggested donation
(no one will be turned away)

Benefit Concert for People's Tribunal on Police Brutality

6-8 pm

Monday, April 6

Coffee House at University Circle

11300 Juniper Rd.

Mississippi Charles Bevel

On Acoustic Guitar

"The 'Blues' does not mean black music. But its African roots cannot be denied... acquired from a people being forced to continuously live on the outer edges of the majority culture in America. Blacks have developed unique ways of expressing the constant pain and frustration that comes with that isolation..." -- Mississippi Charles Bevel

He recorded with A & M Records, "Meet Mississippi Charles Bevel"-- 1970s and with Bare Ridges Records, "Not of Seasons"--2000. His artistic career also has involved writing, acting and directing.

$10 suggested donation
(no one will be turned away)

Benefit Concert for People's Tribunal on Police Brutality

6-8 pm

Monday, April 6

Coffee House at University Circle

11300 Juniper Rd.

Mississippi Charles Bevel

On Acoustic Guitar

"The 'Blues' does not mean black music. But its African roots cannot be denied... acquired from a people being forced to continuously live on the outer edges of the majority culture in America. Blacks have developed unique ways of expressing the constant pain and frustration that comes with that isolation..." -- Mississippi Charles Bevel

He recorded with A & M Records, "Meet Mississippi Charles Bevel"-- 1970s and with Bare Ridges Records, "Not of Seasons"--2000. His artistic career also has involved writing, acting and directing.

$10 suggested donation
(no one will be turned away)